Hit the High Seas with Desert Star's Pirate Parody

MURRAY, UT, Dec 28, 2015 / -- Just when you thought it was safe to go back in the water, Desert Star Playhouse sets sail with "Pirates of the Scaribbean: Dead Men Do No Seaquels!" This zany parody for the whole family opens January 4th.

Written by Ben E. Millet and directed by Scott Holman, "Pirates of the Scaribbean" is a delightful send-up, full of romance, nutty characters and a huge dose of misadventure. The seas of the Caribbean are infested with a scourge of pirates and the pompous Captain Stubbing has sworn to stamp them out. He faces not only the famously eccentric Captain Jack Sprat, but also the devious and cursed Captain Barmitzvah, the Yiddish terror of the high seas! Barmitzvah kidnaps ingénue Eliza Swine and it's up to stableboy Will Doolittle to save her. Will forges an unlikely partnership with Captain Jack and sets out on a bizarre journey to stop Barmitzvah and his goofy crew of misfit pirates. This hilarious show, packed with surprises, will really swash your buckle!

"Pirates of the Scaribbean" runs January 4th through March 17, 2018. The evening also includes one of Desert Star's signature musical olios following the show. "So We Think We Can Dance" features hit songs and hot steps mixed with more of Desert Star's signature comedy.

Food is available from an á la carte menu and is served right at your table. The menu includes gourmet pizza, fresh wraps, appetizers, and scrumptious desserts.
